Before ordering: provide the vehicle year, make, model, engine, and VIN when available. A listed part is not guaranteed to fit every vehicle. Jorge confirms compatibility and the final item-specific price before payment.

Price changes: sample prices are illustrative and must be confirmed before use. Special-order alternatives and vehicle-specific versions may cost more or less; confirm a quote before purchase.

Current inventory snapshot

Sample inventory status - undated example. This is a static example, not a live inventory feed. Confirm availability before promising a part to a customer.

SKU / product	On hand	Reserved	Available	Status	On order

Definitions: On hand is physically in the shop. Reserved is allocated to confirmed pickups. Available = on hand minus reserved. On order is expected incoming stock and is not available to sell today.

Status rules: 0 available = Out of stock; 1-3 available = Low stock; 4 or more available = In stock. Counts use each product's selling unit (for example, one clutch kit or one brake pad set).

Restock: incoming orders are sample quantities. No delivery dates are confirmed. Jorge must check the supplier before giving a customer an expected arrival time.

Purchases, returns and support

The following are illustrative everyday retail policies for this fictional shop. Jorge must approve the final terms before they are used with customers.

Payments and receipts. Cash and major credit/debit cards are accepted. Payment is due at purchase or pickup. A receipt is provided. Prices exclude applicable sales tax; the amount is shown before payment.

Returns and exchanges. Unused, uninstalled parts in their original packaging may be returned within 30 calendar days with the receipt. Refunds use the original payment method where possible. Damaged, installed, or incomplete items need individual review.

Electrical parts and special orders. Opened or installed electrical parts and special-order items need approval before return. Any item-specific return restriction or deposit must be disclosed before the customer places the order.

Defects and warranties. Manufacturer warranties vary by part. Bring the receipt and part details to Jorge for assistance with a suspected defect. Warranty coverage and remedies are confirmed for the specific item; this packet does not promise a universal warranty.

Pickup and reservations. Confirmed parts may be held for 24 hours during business hours. Call if more time is needed. Stock is not reserved until the shop confirms the hold. Uncollected holds may be released.

Order changes and cancellations. Contact Jorge as soon as possible. In-stock orders may be canceled before pickup. Supplier commitments can limit special-order cancellation; any applicable terms must be agreed before ordering.

Customer information. Collect only the contact and vehicle details needed to fulfill an order. Do not include payment-card details in the business packet. Customer contact information is used for order and support communications.

A helpful neighborhood parts counter

Brand name: Jorge's Auto Parts. Voice: friendly, practical, patient, and clear. Explain part choices without assuming the customer understands automotive jargon.

Brand colors: navy #142B49, shop orange #E87524, and white #FFFFFF. Logo guidance: simple business-name wordmark; no finished logo is supplied in this sample.

Assistant guidance: identify uncertain fitment, stock, pricing, or policy information and refer it to Jorge. Never invent compatibility or treat this static inventory snapshot as live data.
